PROCLAMATION-THANKSGIVING.

ANOTHER YEAR, with its varied experiences and vielssitudes, has nearly gone, the seed time and hurvest abundant and excellent. In many respects than usual. have been gathered in. Our State has been favored by an overraling Providence with exemption from pestilence, or any prevailing disease, and the comm and financial distress, under which our land has so long suffered, seems to be approaching an ond. As a State we have been free from evil disturbances, and men have gone about their daily avocations in peace and quiet the scenes of blood which have been the result in other lands of the shock of contending hosts.

It is right that we should, as a people, render the tribute of our thanks to the Author of all good, for the establishment and continuance of our free institutions, for the general health and prosperity of our people, for the blessings of peace, for the privileges of free educa-tion, and freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, and for all the unnumbered blessings, individual and national, so bountifully showezed upon us.

Therefore, in accordance with the time-honored usage, I do hereby recommend to the people of Wisconein that they observe THURSDAY, THE 24th DAY OF day, they unite in their several localities in grateful praise to Almighty God, for his constant care and In testimony whereof, I have bereunto subscribed

The Grain, Trade.

Receipts of wheat, including flour, were about seventy-five thousand bushels, viz: 1.980 bbls flour and 65,291 bushels wheat. Shipments in the aggregate reached nearly one hundred thousand bushels, namely: 4,822 bbls flour and 77,238 bushels wheat. The market improved a little in the early part of the day, but at the close was dull and heavy on account of the decline at New York. The telegraph reports the New York market for flour as having closed with a downward tendency, and wheat as unsettled and nominally 2a4c lower.

DOUGLAS MEN LOOK OUT!

Another Victim of "Misplaced Confidence." We learn from our New York and Cincinnati exchanges that Mr. J. J. FARAN, P. M. at Cincinnati, has been removed summarily from office and Mr. J. L. VATTIER, appointed to succeed him. Mr. FARAN was an originat friend of Mr. Buchanan, while Mr. Vat-TIER went in for FRANK PIERCE; but latterly the Cincinnati Enquirer, with which Mr. FARAN is connected, has leaned Douglaswards; and hence the sudden change in the Cincinnati P. O. The Enquirer (dem.) has the following remarks upon this catastrophe:
"By a private dispatch from Washington, received at an early hour last evening, we gained the information doubt that coal in inexhaustible quantities." the following remarks upon this catastrophe:

"By a private dispatch from Washington, received at an early hour last evening, we gained the information that the Hon, James J. Faran had been removed from the office of Postmaster of this city, and that the Hon, John L. Vattler had been appointed to fill the vacancy thus created. What especial service or act of friend-slip the present incumbent has performed in behalf of the President of the United States, that he should receive this flattering notice at his hands, or what act of disfavor bis successor has perpetrated, it is not essay to divine; but as under the present Administration rewards are said to be in something like an inverse ratio to the aervices rendered, the present act is not perhaps much out of character.

wards are said to be in something like an inverse ratio to the aervices rendered, the present act is not perhaps much out of character.

"We do not learn that Mr. Farun is likely to be seriously disturbed or greatly damaged by the rather unusual notice. Executive elemency has taken of his services. In a pecuniary point of view the less will scarcely be appreciable; and as it regards the homor, it is probable that quite as much is contained in the notice to quit, as in that to enter and occupy. It is sometime since Mr. Faran censed to fear the effects of Executive proscription—the reason by which it is dictated being too inservable to render the act injurious to the reputation of the sufferer, either as a man or a partisan. The motire, in the present case, is doubless of a personal character—having reference to some scheme intended to operate upon the scleention of candidates for the coming Presidential election.

"There is something suggestive in the fact that although ceasing to look upon Mr. Buchmann as a suitable candidate for re-election, Mr. Faran has never been known as a Bonglas man, and is not understood to be favorable to the cialms of that gendeman. His discussed is therefore, indicative of Presidential fears directed towards another quarter; and upon that point, may be instructive to such as are able to see the course for the grant in this a beautiful illustration of

Is not this a beautiful illustration of

"Sham-Democracy?" How do the Freemen of Wisconsin like "this style?"

Ex-Sanator Walker .- The Janesville Times, following the lead of the Milwaukee News, speaks thus disparagingly of ex-Senstor WALKER:

Oh, what a pity that "lyy" should denounce Mr. Hobart and the rest of the Democratic telect. He has not been suspected offening a Democrat for the last Eve years, and is nothing less than a broken down, sparined politician, without—as a politician once said in New York, of Marin Van Buren—"elevation of mind or digaily of character," It is generally understood among his old acquisitances, that although not by any means an old man in years, he is already in a state of dotace.

The Hobart men propose to make another " Jonah" of ex-Senator WALKER. They intend to serve him, as they do everybody else, who seems to stand in the way of Mr. FACING-BOTH-WAYS. We are curious to know how the game will work.

The Joint Discussion Last Night.—As early as six o'clock last evening the assembly Chamber which had been suitably seated for the orgasion, was entered by those deshous of sevening front seats to hear the discussion. At 7 o'clock this large hall was completely or o ded, the floor presenting such a sea of faces as we have never before seen in the city, and the gallery being filled with an array of feminic breilines that completed its fine appearance. There must have been upleared its fine appearance. There must have been upleared of 2,000 in the hall and its vicinity, the strinway being closely packed for some distance down.

At twenty minutes past 7 o'clock, Hoa. Harrison C. Hobart, the Democratic candidate for Governor, entered the hall and was received with loud and centimate of the hall and was received with loud and centimate of the control of t from the short hand report of Mr. Coryel of the University, an expert stenographer, are commenced in thi issue, and will be found to read very correctly and exactly with the speeches delivered by the speakers. The speaking commenced at half past i o'clock and concluded at half past 10. The expressions of feeling throot the meeting were enthusiastic and hearty on bot sides, although we think it preponderated in favor of the Democracy.—Madison Patriot (Dem.)

Not an unnatural "think" on the part of the Democratic organ. On the other hand, the Journal says that Gov. RANDALL, though laboring under a very severe cold, acquitted himself to the entire satisfaction of his Republican friends and successfully met his opponent at every point.

A TEA-TABLE JEST.—An angry subsorther, evidently a woman, writes that "it is a burning shame that, so long as there is a Coach in China, our Minister should be sent to Pekin in a box, with no chance of pekin' out of it."—Boston Courier. out of it." - Boston Courier.

The Truth Cowittingly Told. We desire to call attention to the following from the New York Herald, which in a sketch of the Kansas history of Capt. John

In another part of the same paper, this Prince of lying locofoco sheets, charges that BROWN was in complicity with the Republican party, and that the latter is responsible for his conduct, when the history of the man shows that even in the excesses and extravagances of the Border Rufflan war, he was avoided as too much of a monomanise to be consulted or trusted .- Grand Rapids Eagle. New FLOURING MILL .-- Messrs. N.

Churchill & Co., have just completed a new flouring mill at Monroe, Green County. The main building is 35x56 and three stories in height, above the basement, and built of brick. The wood work is principally blackwalunt-all of the heavy timbers and posts being of the same material. In the rear of the basement is an engine room 22x45 feet, in which is being put up an eighty horse power engine, provided with double boilers 27 feet long and five feet fire boxes. The capacity of the mill and engine is for four run of stone, with which it is expected to turn out 140 bbls of flour each 24 hours. The construction or rather remodeling of the mill was under the supervision of Mr. Newton Young, and the milling department is to be under the charge of Mr. GEO. BEATTE, an excellent miller, late of Chicago.

Two New Daily Papers Published At La Chosse.—Two new daily papers, published at La Crosse, have made their appearance simultaneously, the Daily Republican, edited by WM. C. Rogens, publisher of the Weekly NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of THANKSGIVING, and Republican, and the Daily Democrat, edited that, abstaining from their secular avocations on that by A. P. BLAKESLEE, publisher of the Weekly Democrat. They are both the same size, six column sheets, make a good show of reading matter, and have the appearance of being managed with ability. The Republican, as its name implies, is Republican in politics; the Democrat is the opposite, and promises to stand by the National Democracy. Barring the politics of the latter they both deserve success.

New Steamship for the Pacific.—Commodore Vanderbilt's new from side-wheel steamer Champion, Captain A. T. Fletcher, intended for the Atlantic and Pacific Steamship Company's opposition line to California, left this port on Saturday. She goes direct to San Prancisco, via Magellan, calling at Rio Janeiro, Chile coal mines, thence to California without stopping at Panama, She had on board 700 tons of coal, sixty days provisions for her officers and crew, which consisted of the full complement, 140 tous of freight, and drew only twelve feet of water. a ship, an iron one too, of sixteen hundred DISCOVERY OF COAL.—We have been shown by Mr. C. P. Ires, of Big Rapids, a specimen of Caunel Coal, a vein of which has been struck at that place. This specimen was taken from the bottom of a well some sixty feet deep. He informs us that it crops out near the surface some three or four miles west of Big Rapids. A man came directly exists there.

The Harper's Ferry Affair.—It is perfectly idle, to say the least, to turn such an event into political capital. No party would dream of endorsing these or similar atrocities; and it is a poor and unworthy class of tacties that would seek to fasten the responsibility anywhere else than upon the misguided actors themselves. Whatever may be the tradegrap of their responsibility and the property of the second second of their second arrival arrival transfer of their responsibility. the tendency of their avowed principles, no organization worthy of the name, has ever counseled violent resistance of the law in slave territory. #### timore American. Election Frauds at Fort Kearney, N. T.

Sr. Louis, Oct 25. Late Nebraska papers papers contain accounts of tremendous frauds perpetrated by the friends of Gen. Estabrook, at Fort Kearney, at the recent election. There are not over twenty-five legal voters in this precinct. but the returns show 238 majority for Gen. Estabrook. Soldiers roted four or five times each. The Board of Canvassers were all, with one exception, drunk and rioting all day. The polls were also re-opened after they had been closed, to receive the votes of men from Plum Greek. If Gen. Estabrook obtains a certificate of election it will be upon this outrageous villainy; but if these fra are thrown out, as they ought to be, Hon. Samuel G. It was snowing fast at the time, and taken from Ossawaitomie to Lecompton in chains, a distance of thirty milts. His feet and hands were chained together with a large heavy chain, the size of that used upon ox teams. He was compelled to walk the wholdistance beneath the burning sun. The iron wore the flesh from his ankles; he was attacked with the brain fever, was neglected, and died in two or three days. He was a companion of Gov. Robinson, Jenkins (since shot by Lane,) and eight or ten others. Another son of Captain Brown was shot at Ossawattomie by a marauding party from oceasioned by the tortures and fatigue of his forced march, Brown swore vengeance on the pro-slavery party, and it was frequently observed by the more prudent of the Free State men, that he was evidently insane on the subject. He was always considered by them as a dangerous man, was never taken into their councils, and never consulted by them mith reference to they volice or movements.

THE NEED OF PUBLIC CISTERNS .- The fire in the Seventh Ward, yesterday morning, demonstrated the absolute necessity (in the absence of Water Works) of more public cisterns in those parts of the city, remote from the river, or the lake. But for the cistern on the premises of Col. WALKER (which No. 1 pumped dry,) the fire would have been much more destructive. Had there been a public cistern in front of the Summerfield Church, on Van Buren street, the building in which the fire broke out would have been saved, and no further damage done.

FIFTY-THREE DOLLARS LOST AT THE FIRE. -This morning J. M. Crunmey, proprietor of the meat market in Bowman's building, just above the Post Office, lost $55 in bank hills, while going to, or while at the fire. He had them loose in a sort of wad, in his vest pocket, and at the fire he was in Col. Walk-er's yard, working at an engine, where he thinks he may have lost it out of his pocket. Now it may be asked, was the Chairman of the Lecture Committee too cautious in refusing to call on Dr. CHERVER to lecture, not because the Doctor was an abolitionist, of his anti-slavery sentiments. TELEGRAPH! FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

The Scheme of the Insurrectionists.

New YORK, Oct. 27-3 P. M.
The Herald publishes a series of letters found at Gen. Brown's house, addressed to various publishers, principally to F. B. Sanborn, Secretary of the Massachusetts Emigrant Aid Society, and Dr. S. G. Howe, or Boston. One letter addressed to the latter grant Aid Society, and Dr. S. G. Howe, of Boston. One letter, addressed to the latter, dated May, 1858, is prefaced by the following memorandum: Please show this to Messrs. Sanborn, Lawrence & Co. Copies will be sent to Gov. Chase, who found money, and to others interested, as quickly as possible.

The letter gives the plans of Forbes and and Brown for an insurrection. Forbes plan was, with carefully selected colored and white persons, to organize along the northern slave frontier of Virginia and Maryland, and incite a series of stampedes of slaves, each one of which operations would carry off in one night from 20 to 50 slaves.

Everything being in readiness, they could be sent with such speed to Canada, that pursuit would be hopeless. In Canada preparations were to be made for their instruction and employment. Any disaster which might and employment. Any disaster which might befall a stampede would, at the utmost, combefall a stampede would, at the utmost, compromise those only who might be engaged in that single one, therefore we were not bound in good with to the Abolitionists, as we did not jeopardize that interest to consult more than those engaged in this very proceeding, against chance of those by accidents should be weighed the advantages of a series of successful rums. Slave property would thus become untenable near the frontier.

The frontier would be pushed more and more southward, and it might reasonably he expected that excitement and invitation would impel pro-slaveries to commit some similed. expected that excitement and irritation would impel pro-slaveryites to commit some stupid blunders. The Missouri frontier being so far from the habitable part of Canada, and political parties, anti and pro-slavery, being so nearly balanced in Missouri, suggested a peculiar action in that quarter, which would depend in a great measure on affairs in Kansas. Brown had a different scheme. He proposed with some 25 to 50 colored and white men, all well armed, and bringing a quantity of spars arms, to beat up a slave quagater in of spare arms, to beat up a slave quarter in Yirginia. To this he objected that no pre-paratory notice having been given to slaves, no notice could with prudence be given them.

The invitation to rise might, unless they were already in a state of agitation meet with no response, or a feeble one. To this he no response, or a feeble one. To this he replied he was sure of a response, and calculated that he could get on the first night from 200 to 500. Half, or thereabouts of this lot he proposed to keep with him, mounting all or so of them, and make a dash at Harper's Ferry manufactory, destroying what he could, but not to earry off anything. The other men, not of this party, were to be subdivided into three, four or five distinct parties, each under two or three of the original band, and would beat up other slave quarters, whence more men would be sent to join them.

The burden of Forbes' letters are grievons complaints for not receiving aid promised for his services, which was to be sent to Paris for the support of Forbes' family. In one letter he says: On the 1st of May, 1853, I had an interview with Senator Wn. H. Seward, of N. Y. I went fully into the whole matter, in all its bearings. He expressed regret that he had been told, and said that he in his position, ought not to have been in-fortued of the circumstances. In part I agree with him, and in part I differ. I regret that misconduct of New Englanders should have forced me to address myself to him, but be-ing now ealighted on the subject, he cannot well let his lustiness continue in its present well let this business continue in its present crooked condition. A cotton speculation was devised by Brown but objected to by Forbes. Brown told him that Amos Lawrence of Boston, had promised him $7,000 when hostilities had actually commenced. These letters were written in 1858.

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 26, 1859.

T. J. Faulkner and Lawson Bolls, Charles town, Va.: John Brown, leader of the insurrection at Harper's Ferry, and several of his family, have resided in this county for many years. Insanity is hereditary in his family. His mother's sister'died with it, and a daughter of that sister has been two years in a lunatic asylum. A son and daughter of his moth-er's brother have also been confined in a lunatic asylum, and another son of that brother s now insane and under close restraint. These facts can be conclusively proven by witnesses residing here, who will doubtless attend the trial, if desired. [Signed.]

attend the trial, if desired. [Signed.]

A. H. LEWIS.

The telegraph operator at the Akron office,
Wm. C. Allen, adds to the above despatch, that A. H. Lewis is a resident of that place, and his statements are entitled to implicit credit.

Mr. Botts said that on receiving the above despatch he went to the jail with his associate, Mr. Green, and read it to Brown, and he was desired by the latter to say that in his father's family there has never been any insanity at all, but on his mother's side there as been repeated instances of it.

He adds: His first wife showed symptoms of it, which was also evident in his lirst and second sons by that wife. Some portions of the statements in the despatch he knows to be correct; of other portions he is ignorant. He does not know whether his mother's sister died in a lunatic asylum, but he does believe a daughter of that sister has been two years in an asylum, and thinks a son and daughter of his mother's brother have been couldned in an asylum, but he was not aware of the fact that another son of that brother is now insane, and in close #### confinement. LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT Trial of the Insurrectionists.

CHARLESTOWN, Oct. 27-9 P. M. Brown desires his connsel to say that he does not put in any plea of insanity, and if he has ever been at all insane he is totally unconscious of it; yet he adds that those who are most insane generally suppose that they have more reason and sanity than those around them; for himself he disdains to not around them; for himself, he disdains to put in that plea, and seeks no immunity of that kind; this movement is made totally without his approbation or concurrence, and was un-known to him until receipt of the despatch. Brown here raised himself upon his hed and said:—I will add, if the Court, will allow, that I look upon it as a miserable artifice and protext of those who ought to take a different course in regard to me, if they took any at all, and I view it with contempt more than otherwise; as I remarked to Mr. Green, in sane persons, so far as my experience goes, have but v-ry little ability to judge of their sanity, and if I am insane of course I should think I kn-w more than all the rest of the world; but I do not think so; I am perfectly unconscious of insanity, and I reject so far as I am capable, any attempt to interfere in my behalf on that score. Mr. Botts stated that he was further instructed by Brown to state that he rejected this plea entirely, and seeking no delay for that reason, he does repeat to the court his request made yesterday, that time be given for the arrival of foreign counsel, which he had reason to expect yesterday P. M.

A despatch was received from Cleveland, Ohio, signed Daniel Tilden, dated the 26th, asking of Brown whether it would be of any use for counsel to leave last night. To this despatch an answer was returned that a jury would be sworn this morning, and Brown desired the counsel to come at once. The telegraph operator stated that this dispatch would be sent off at once in advance of the dispatches sent by the reporters, and he had learned this morning that it was sent before the storm that last night interrupted commufication, so that counsel might reach here by 12 or 1 o'clock to-night.

Mr. Hunter observed that the prisoner's counsel having renewed the motion of yester-day for a delay for a specific period indicated, and upon information received in the form a telegraph dispatch, the question now was whether there was sufficient grounds in this additional information to change the decis-ion announced by the Court yesterday on the

The point wus fully discussed by the counties point with sides Court stated that he must see in this case as in any other, that proper cause for delay was made out before granting such application.

The jury was then aworn, and the Court directed that the prisoner might forego the form of standing while arraigned, if he desired. Botts put inquiry to the prisoner, and he continued to lie prostrate in his cot while the long indictment, filling seven pages, was read—lat, insurrection, 2d, treason, and 2d, murder.

Harding, on the part of the prosecution, then addressed the jury, presenting the facts of the case, and reading the law on treason, &c. He was followed by Green on the part of the prisoner.

Charlestown, Oct. 28-9 P. M. Twenty-four jurymen, mostly farmers from a distance, some owning a few slaves, were selected as competent jurors; out of these the selected as competent jurors; out of these the counsel for the prisoner struck off 8 and then 12 were selected by ballot from the re-maining 16, as follows: Richard Simberlay, Joseph Meyers, Thomas Watson, jr., Isaac Dart, John C. McClurc, Wm. Rightstone, J. J. Miller, Thos. Osborne, Geo. W. Boyer, J. C. Willzhiere, Geo. W. Taft, and Wm. A. Martin. The jury were not sworn on the oase, but the Judge charged them not to con-verse upon the case nor to permit others to verse upon the case nor to permit others to converse with them.

Confession of one of the Insurrectionists, &c Charlestown, Oct. 27—9 P. M.
John Copeland, mulatto prisoner from Oberlin, Ohio, has made a full confession to the U. S. Marshal; he has given the names of the parties at Oberlin who induced him to go to Harper's Ferry; who furnished him with money for his expenses, &c. He also stated that a movement of a simular character was contemplated in Kentucky about the time: many persons in northern Ohio; whose names have heretofore been mentioned, are decidedly implicated. His confession is withheld from the public until the trial is over, by order of Gov. Wise.

Mir. Johnson was shown to day, a large namber of letters, implicating Gerritt Smith, and a number of prominent men in Oberlin, Uleveland and other parts of Ohio. Among the letters is one signed by Horace Greeley CHARLESTOWN, Oct. 27-9 P. M.

the letters is one signed by Horace Greeley & Co., that had enclosed $41,00 for seven letters from Kansas and from Ohio. It was directed to J. H. Kagi, one of the killed, but he had been a correspondent of the Tribune; and his pay was evidently inclosed in this letter.

Another letter from Capt. Brown to his son, dated April 16th, 1859, details a visit to Gerrit Smith at Petersbore, which the wri-ter regarded as high encouraging; the Smith.

ter regarded as highy encouraging; that Smith gave him $100, and that he also received at his house a note that he considered good for $200 more; also that Smith had written to his friends east that $2,000 must be raised for Brown, of which he would farnish one-fifth himself. There is also a notice of a draft from the cashier of the New York State Bank, sent him by direction of Gerrit Smith dated Albany, Aug 29, 1859.

Marshal Johnson has a list of the officer of the Provisional Government, and a list of the contributors to the project. He left for Cleveland lest evening, taking copies with him. The examination made by him shows the fact that this movement had long been maturing; many prominent men in the North-eru States have given money and influence in its behalf, and when the facts are made publie a sensation may be expected. Steamer New World Sunk,

New York, Oct. 27-9 P. M. The steamer New World met with a serious accident last evening, while off Fort Wash-ington, on her way to Albany, by the break-ing of her connecting rod. A portion of the machinery was driven through the bottom of the boat, causing her to sink before the freight or passengers could be removed. The pas-sengers, however, took refuge on the steam tug Ohio and on a schooner which happened be to in the vicinity, and were put ashore.

Brown was brought into Court this morning, he being able to walk but he immediately laid down on his cot at full length within the bar. He looks considerably better, the swelling having left his eyes. Senator Mason is among the spectators.

On the other hand, the vessel is under perfect control of the helm, with no greater amount of force than is required by a first class frigate. Consumption of coal is mod-erate, and the engines work with none of the stiffness of new machinery.
